Notes for Hallie May Hammons:

Information floating around on Ancestry.com concerning Hallie is quite jumbled. Many list her death as August 14, 1914; however, this death date belongs to a different Hallie Cook. Hallie first marries Horace Cook on November 15, 1903, according to Kentucky Marriage data. What is interesting is it states she is 18 years of age at the time of the marriage, which would have put her birth year in 1885. Several different pieces of documentation shows she was born in 1890. I believe they lied about her birth year on her marriage license because she was only 13 when she married Horace Cook. They evidently divorce prior to 1919. She next marries Frank Kennedy, Sr. on May 31, 1919. It is clearly this Hallie because subsequent U.S. Census reports shows the children she had with Horace (Harold and Anna) are now living with her and Frank Kennedy and they are listed as his step-children.

Notes for Nancy Louise Hammons:

From Find A Grave Memorial:

Nancy Louise Hammons Rivers, 69, of Waco, Texas, formerly of Ludlow, passed away Monday, June 16, 2008 at the Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center in Waco.

Nancy was born to Dewey and Leona Hammons at their home in Ludlow, Kentucky on March 12, 1939. She had seven brothers and two sisters. She attended elementary and secondary schools in Ludlow, graduating from Ludlow High School in 1956. Post-secondary education was obtained at the University of Kentucky (Northern and Lexington campuses), University of West Virginia and Western Kentucky University.

Nancy began her employment career as a teller at the Ludlow Bank following her graduation from high school. After her marriage in December, 1960, she served in administrative positions in a variety of organizations including the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Purdue University School of Veterinary Science, Mingo County (WV) Development Corporation and Hospital Affiliates International. Following a move to Waco in 1981, she served as an administrative assistant at Word, Inc. until 1989. She was then employed in Scott and White's Waco Clinic until 1997 when she was made manager of Scott and White's O.B.-Gyn. Clinic located in Providence Hospital. She remained in that position until her retirement in November, 2000.

From Nancy's second decade, muscular dystrophy gradually, inexorably deprived her of mobility, confining her to a wheel chair during her last fifteen years. Though her physical strength slowly ebbed, she was lifted and sustained by the love and encouragement of her husband, family and friends. Her undaunted spirit cast off the chains of disability to soar on the wings of her poetry of joy, love and light. Her remarkable intelligence, wisdom, compassion, love of life, unyielding contention with adversity, rejection of bitterness and unquenchable love of God are ever present in her poems, prayers and stories. She took pleasure in adapting, coping and living well despite her body's failing strength. In so doing, she attained a victory of the spirit through an exemplary life of courage that inspired all who knew and loved her.

~ Ad Astra Per Aspera ~

Nancy is survived by her husband, David L. Rivers; sister, Martha (Clifford) Daly of Florence; brothers, Eugene (Loretta) Hammons of Crestview Hills, Charles (Barbara) Hammons of Ludlow, Harold Hammons of Felicity, Ohio, and Edwin (Linda) Hammons of Florence; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents, Dewey and Leona Fightmaster Hammons; three brothers, Elmer Hammons, Leo Hammons, and Bill Hammons; and one sister, Helen Troxell.

Notes for Stratton Owen Hammon ✕:

The following information provided by Neal Owen HAMMON. It was originally intended to be a part of Chapter 3 of his unpublished book entitled: "The HAM(M)ON(D) Name":

Stratton Owen Hammon (b. 6 Mar 1904), was born in Louisville, Kentucky 6

Generation 6

March 1904. Was baptized by Rev. Waltz at the First English Lutheran Church 27 March 1904. He died on 22 October, 1997 and was buried in Cave Hill Cemetery next to Helen Jones Hammon.

Stratton Hammon was born 6 March 1904 at 1117 Payne Street in Louisville, Kentucky and as noted above, he is the third child of his parents. The date did not seem auspicious, except that it was also the birth date of Michelangelo.

Stratton Hammon attended the Overhill School, (now Rubel Avenue School) which was old enough that his mother had also attended there. It was still in use as a school in 1964. Later he was transferred to a new school on Broadway just east of Barret. When he was seven he moved into the front half of his Grandmother Miller's house at 528 Baxter Avenue where he lived until his first marriage.

In June 1919, with only one year of mechanical drawing at high school, Stratton Hammon obtained a position as apprentice draftsman at the mechanical engineering department of the Henry Vogt Machine Company and was paid a salary of $5.00 for a 60 hour week. During the summer of 1920 he worked as a mechanical draftsman in the ornamental iron department of the Logan Company. Later in 1920, he was employed as an architectural draftsman by M.J. Murphy at 35¢ per hour, a great increase over the salary he had made at Henry Vogt Machine Company. Murphy operated his small building business out of his home on Murray Avenue and styled himself, "Architect and Master Builder"

At age 16, Stratton Hammon was given the responsibility for the design of the houses of this small building firm. He had a natural talent for this work, and by 1935 developed into one of the best, if not the best, architects in Kentucky.

In June 1922 Stratton Hammon graduated from the DuPont Manual Training High School and began to work full time for Michael Joseph Murphy. On 24 June 1924, he married Bertha Lee Fieldhouse, (usually called by her nickname, Bertalee) at St. Paul's Evangelical Church at Brook and Broadway. The newlyweds lived in a rented four room house at 825 Edward Avenue, where a son, Neal Owen Hammon, was born 11 December 1925. Edward is the first street north of and parallel to Barret. The house, which was located on the north side between Breckinridge and DeBarr Streets, was still standing in 1999. About a year later, he built and occupied a house at the corner of Fleming Road and Woodfill Way, where another son, Keath Edwin Hammon, was born on 18 July 1927.

During this time Stratton Hammon attended the Architectural School at the University of Louisville at night. Between 1921 and 1936, Stratton Hammon's main recreation was canoeing, and he made a number of trips with friends.

The children of Bertha Lee Fieldhouse and Stratton Owen Hammon (b. 6 Mar 1904) were:

1. Neal Owen Hammon, born at 825 Edward Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky, 11 December 1925.
2. Keath Edwin Hammon, born at Fleming Road and Woodfill Way, Louisville, Kentucky, 18 July 1927.

In 1929 the "great depression" practically stopped all construction and caused Stratton Hammon to lose his job. He then began to work for himself as an architect, and subsequently became nationally prominent for his residential designs. In 1930 he divorced Bertalee, but they were married again in 1931. They were divorced a second time and on 10 November 1933, he married Helen Louise Jones (b. 4 Apr 1908) who was born in Kentucky 4 April 1908.

The child of Stratton Owen Hammon (b. 6 Mar 1904) and Helen Louise Jones (b. 4 Apr 1908) was Helen Stratton Hammon, born 15 May 1934.

Generation 6

For a time the couple lived in a rented house on Wataga Avenue, but in 1936 they built a house on Upland Road, overlooking Grinstead Drive. In this year of 1940 they sold the Upland Road house at a nice profit and promptly bought a 10 acre farm in Anchorage and a lot on Maple Road in the Alta Vista section overlooking Cherokee Park. They erected a house on both sites, the main house in town and a remodeled barn for a summer house on the farm. However, the timing was bad since the United States entered World War 2 in December, 1941, and Maple Road house had to be sold as soon as it was finished.

Stratton Hammon entered the Corps of Engineers as a Captain and during 1942 and 1943 was a project engineer-administrator in the in charge of military construction in the Louisville District. At this post he designed and built airfields at Sturgis, Kentucky and Columbus, Indiana, and enlarged Bowman Field in Louisville. He was also involved in beginning construction at Stanford Field in Louisville. In 1943 he was promoted to Major and sent to Fort Belvoir, Virginia for further training. In the summer of 1944 Major Stratton Hammon was sent to England, and on July 13, 1944 he arrived in France with Company H, European Civil Affairs Division. Later he was transferred to the Fine Arts, Monuments and Archives section of Civil Affairs in the European Theater of Operations. He served as the top ranking US monuments officer until about the time the Germans surrendered. In April 1945 he left France and returned to the United States, and was discharged in July and moved back into the Anchorage house.

Stratton Hammon resumed the practice of architecture and subsequently was appointed as a member of the State Board of Architects by the governor of Kentucky. A few weeks later, on 5 August, 1946 he bought 5.66 acres on Blankenbaker Lane from Mrs. Henry Burnett and began at once to remodel the old garage and servant's quarters on the estate into a house. The main house had burned down during the war. On 7 August he sold the Anchorage farm to Judge Horace Barker. About this time Ensign Neal Hammon was released from active duty by the Navy, but was at home only briefly, as he enrolled in College at the University of Illinois. Keith Hammon, working at a military hospital in Bremerton, Washington, was retained by the Navy for several more years.

On 16 December 1946 the family moved into an uncompleted house which is now 32 River Hill Road. On 20 May 1947 the Republic of France awarded Stratton Hammon Chevalier of the Legion d'Honneur, (Knight of the Legion of Honor) for services rendered France during the war. In June 1948, in company with another architect and an engineer, he purchased a five story office building at 419 West Main Street in Louisville. By this time Neal Hammon had graduated from architectural school and was working with the firm. The building was located on the north side of Main between Bullitt and Fifth Streets at the northwest corner, the previous corner building having been demolished shortly after his purchase. He remodeled the fifth floor and moved into this office there 21 January 1949; the building was sold in August 1950 and the office moved to Fifth and Main streets into a building owned by Dinwiddie Lampton.

In December 1950, Stratton and Helen sold their remodeled house at 32 River Hill Road to Mrs. Peter Lee Atherton and on 10 January, 1951, moved to an apartment at 1028 Cherokee Road. In the meantime they started a new house on the site of the old Burnett house which had burned down, having retained about three and a half acres of the Burnett Estate. In December of that year they moved into the second house on the circle, 31 River Hill Road.

In January, 1952, the office was moved to the 11th floor of the Washington Building at 4th and Market Streets. In September, 1953, Stratton Hammon sold his house at 31 River Hill Road to Charles Lyman Vogt, and on 16 December he purchased and moved into the apartment building at 1308 Eastern Parkway, and in August he moved from the Eastern Parkway Apartment into his third house on the circle, 30 River Hill Road, where he lived until his death on October 22, 1997. His daughter, Helen Jones Pike now owns the house.

Generation 6

In 1953 Stratton Hammon and Neal Hammon formed a new company called the Vibration Damage Specialists, which was a consulting firm frequently used by insurance companies to handle blasting claims. Meanwhile, in partnership, they continue to do architectural work. On 29 July, 1960, Stratton Hammon bought a house on the southeast corner of Wendover and Wilmington in St. Matthews, which was used as an office until 1990, when it was sold to Roland Jones.

In 1991 Helen Hammon died of cancer in her home, at 30 Riverhill Road, Louisville, and was buried in Cave Hill Cemetery. In 1992 Stratton Hammon married Carol Troutman. He died at home on 22 October, 1997 and is buried in Cave Hill Cemetery next to Helen Jones Hammon.

Notes for Ralph W Perkins Sr.:

Ralph "Dub" Perkins, Sr., 82, widower of Tommie Foster Perkins who died in 1957 and Mary "Ronnie" Combs Perkins since 2012 left his earthly home on Sunday, March 6, 2016. Dub was a native of Jessamine County born Jan. 15, 1934, to the late Luther and Virginia Mattingly Perkins. He was a proud veteran of the U.S. Navy and a man who showed a strong work ethic his entire life. Mr. Perkins began working at Bluegrass RECC at the age of 11 digging post-holes for electrical poles. After 4 years in the Navy, he worked for the City of Nicholasville Electric and Water Departments for 16 years, at University of Kentucky in maintenance for 17 years, at Asbury College in security for 14 years, at the Nicholasville Fire Department for 30 years, at the Jessamine County Fire Department for 32 years, as a newspaper carrier for the Lexington Herald Leader for 14 years, and as a bagger at Kroger for 12 years in many instances working more than one job at a time. Dub was currently working for the Jessamine County Fiscal Court in maintenance as a custodian, where he had been employed for over 13 years.

He was a dedicated father of Freddie Perkins, Mike (Jennifer) Perkins, Marty (Georgia) Perkins, John (Brandy Abner) Perkins, and Stacy Perkins. His children remember him as always being there for them, rarely missing their ballgames and activities. His son said he was not an absent father. Additional survivors include son-in-law Jeff Bowman, brother Joe (Lea) Perkins, grandchildren David (Crystal) Perkins, Chad Perkins, Aaron (Amanda) Perkins, Robert (Hannah) Perkins, Tommy Perkins, Ashlyn Perkins, Sydney Perkins, Madison Perkins, Jeremy Perkins, and Rebecca (John) Perkins Bowman Hensley, and six great grandchildren. Notes for Robert Ray Chandler:

From Find A Grave Memorial:

Robert Chandler was born in Jennings, Kan., on March 21, 1928, to Archie Edgar and Alfrieda Louise (Celik) Chandler. He graduated from high school in Oberlin, Kan. He married the love of his life, Melva Jean Duckworth, on Feb. 16, 1947.

Together, they raised four children. Robert worked for the Bureau of Reclamation as a safety inspector, a job which brought him to New Mexico to help oversee the construction of the NAPI project. He worked on the project from its inception through overseeing the miles of tunnel and irrigation system that stretched from the Navajo Dam into the Navajo Nation. Robert retired from the Bureau in the late 1970s and began working for Ashgrove Cement Company part-time until it closed its Farmington branch. Robert loved the times he had with his family, and he always made time for family activities. He also was an avid record collector, enjoyed going to yard sales, gardening and watching the wildlife that frequented his home. As a lifelong learner, Robert often took classes through San Juan College, where he earned an AA degree, as well as pursuing other interests, such as conversational Spanish, photography and horticulture. He enjoyed making new friends and most recently attending the Aztec Senior Center, playing dominos and participating in other social events there.

Robert was preceded in death by his wife, Melva Jean Chandler; parents, Archie Chandler and Alfrieda Webber (Celik); brother, Harwood Chandler; grandparents, John (Marie) Celik; and granddaughter Sara Jean Stevenson. He is survived by his children, Collin (Chelo) Chandler, Gary (Connie) Chandler, Cathy (Tod) Stevenson, Patricia Carpenter and Chris Carpenter; grandchildren, Laurie Howell, Robbie Carpenter, Lisa Carpenter and Will Smith; great-grandchildren, Destiny Smith, Madison Smith, Hunter Smith, Blair Smith, Gabby Howell, Alexis Ontiveros and Kayla Ontiveros.

A graveside service will be 1 p.m. today, May 8, in Memory Gardens, 6917 E. Main St. in Farmington.

A reception will follow the service at Robert Chandler's home in Flora Vista. Pallbearers are Gary Chandler, Collin Chandler, Tod Stevenson, Chris Carpenter, David Howell and Ed Schmidt.

Memorial donations may be made to the Aztec Senior Center.

Robert's care is entrusted to Cope Memorial Chapel, 404 W. Arrington St. in Farmington, 505-327-5142. Those who wish to express their condolences may do so at www.serenityandcompany.com.

Notes for Raymond Smedley Kendall Jr:

From Find A Grave:

Raymond S. Kendall, Jr., it is with profound sadness that we announce the death of our beloved father and grandfather, Raymond S. Kendall, Jr., on July 17, 2014.

Raymond lived a long, full life and was in good health until recently. Raymond was born in Lexington, Ky. on Oct. 16, 1920, to Raymond S. Kendall and Pearl Barnes Kendall. He lived in Lexington for most of his childhood and enjoyed the company of many aunts, uncles, cousins and grandparents. He graduated from Henry Clay High School in 1938 and attended the University of Kentucky. Raymond was in the Kentucky National Guard, serving in one of the last cavalry units, obtaining the rank of sergeant; he often told his children funny stories of his adventures on horseback.

In 1942, Raymond was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the United States Army. During June of 1942, Raymond married Anne Lyon Perry, also of Lexington. Kendall and Anne traveled to wherever his orders took them. They often lived in a single rented room as was common in those times. After multiple duty stations, they were assigned to Oak Ridge. Their wonderful 43-year marriage saw the arrival of four children and six grandchildren. Raymond worked for the Atomic Energy Commission first as an army officer and then as a civilian. He remembered that as an army officer, he carried nuclear material from Oak Ridge to Chicago, and then to New Mexico in a metal suitcase handcuffed to his arm. He worked in the AEC Security Division for almost 30 years and in 1974 Raymond was asked to organize and manage the Southeastern Courier Section. He did so and worked on this project until he retired from the Department of Energy in 1977.

In addition, after 32 years of service to our country, he retired as a lieutenant colonel from the U.S. Army. After his retirement, he and Anne traveled the southeast and enjoyed spending time with their children and grandchildren.

During 1985, Raymond lost both his mother in Lexington and his wife in Oak Ridge. He spent most of his time that year traveling between the two cities, taking care of both his mother and his wife. In late 1986, Raymond married his neighbor and family friend, Irene Jenkins. They continued to live in Oak Ridge where they both had many friends and family. They were active in community events and in their church, First United Methodist Church of Oak Ridge. They enjoyed traveling and going to the horse races in both Arkansas and Kentucky. They had a very happy marriage until Irene suddenly grew ill and passed away in 2005.

Raymond loved sports particularly baseball, bowling and golf. He was a member for more than 50 years at the Oak Ridge Country Club and was able to play golf well into his 80s. His favorite sports teams were the Wildcats ... the Oak Ridge Wildcats, but especially the Kentucky Wildcats. He was a loyal fan and supporter in both winning and losing seasons.

In addition to Anne and Irene, Raymond was predeceased by his mother and stepfather, his father and stepmother and a son-in-law, Kevin McGown.

He is survived by his four children and three step-children, John Russell Kendall and wife Mary, Kenneth Raymond Kendall and wife, Katherine, Rebecca Kendall, and Nancy Kendall and husband, Michael Stephens, Jane Hollenbeck and husband Bill, Benjamin Gunter and wife Kathy, and, Brad Jenkins and wife Karen. He leaves nine grandchildren, Allen Carroll, Brian Carroll, Frances Kendall, Jeffrey Kendall, John Kendall, Becky Kendall Dicapetris, Heather Reynolds, Jess Gunter and Amanda Jenkins; 13 great-grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren. Raymond was also "Uncle Kendall" to numerous nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the wonderful staff at Canterfield Assisted Living in Oak Ridge for all the kindnesses shown to Raymond. Our father took great pleasure in supporting many local and national charities, so in lieu of flowers, please donate to Contact of Oak Ridge, P. O. Box 4641, Oak Ridge, TN 37831 or another charity of your choice. The family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, July 22, 2014, at First United Methodist Church, 1350 Oak Ridge Turnpike, Oak Ridge, Tenn. The service will follow at 7 p.m. in the Church Sanctuary.

Notes for Nancy Louise Hammons:
From Find A Grave Memorial:

Nancy Louise Hammons Rivers, 69, of Waco, Texas, formerly of Ludlow, passed away Monday, June 16, 2008 at the Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center in Waco.

Nancy was born to Dewey and Leona Hammons at their home in Ludlow, Kentucky on March 12, 1939. She had seven brothers and two sisters. She attended elementary and secondary schools in Ludlow, graduating from Ludlow High School in 1956. Post-secondary education was obtained at the University of Kentucky (Northern and Lexington campuses), University of West Virginia and Western Kentucky University.

Nancy began her employment career as a teller at the Ludlow Bank following her graduation from high school. After her marriage in December, 1960, she served in administrative positions in a variety of organizations including the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Purdue University School of Veterinary Science, Mingo County (WV) Development Corporation and Hospital Affiliates International. Following a move to Waco in 1981, she served as an administrative assistant at Word, Inc. until 1989. She was then employed in Scott and White's Waco Clinic until 1997 when she was made manager of Scott and White's O.B.-Gyn. Clinic located in Providence Hospital. She remained in that position until her retirement in November, 2000.

From Nancy's second decade, muscular dystrophy gradually, inexorably deprived her of mobility, confining her to a wheel chair during her last fifteen years. Though her physical strength slowly ebbed, she was lifted and sustained by the love and encouragement of her husband, family and friends. Her undaunted spirit cast off the chains of disability to soar on the wings of her poetry of joy, love and light. Her remarkable intelligence, wisdom, compassion, love of life, unyielding contention with adversity, rejection of bitterness and unquenchable love of God are ever present in her poems, prayers and stories. She took pleasure in adapting, coping and living well despite her body's failing strength. In so doing, she attained a victory of the spirit through an exemplary life of courage that inspired all who knew and loved her.

Notes for Nancy Louise Hammons:

From Find A Grave Memorial:

Nancy Louise Hammons Rivers, 69, of Waco, Texas, formerly of Ludlow, passed away Monday, June 16, 2008 at the Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center in Waco.

Generation 7

Nancy was born to Dewey and Leona Hammons at their home in Ludlow, Kentucky on March 12, 1939. She had seven brothers and two sisters. She attended elementary and secondary schools in Ludlow, graduating from Ludlow High School in 1956. Post-secondary education was obtained at the University of Kentucky (Northern and Lexington campuses), University of West Virginia and Western Kentucky University.

Nancy began her employment career as a teller at the Ludlow Bank following her graduation from high school. After her marriage in December, 1960, she served in administrative positions in a variety of organizations including the University of Kentucky Medical Center, Purdue University School of Veterinary Science, Mingo County (WV) Development Corporation and Hospital Affiliates International. Following a move to Waco in 1981, she served as an administrative assistant at Word, Inc. until 1989. She was then employed in Scott and White's Waco Clinic until 1997 when she was made manager of Scott and White's O.B.-Gyn. Clinic located in Providence Hospital. She remained in that position until her retirement in November, 2000.

From Nancy's second decade, muscular dystrophy gradually, inexorably deprived her of mobility, confining her to a wheel chair during her last fifteen years. Though her physical strength slowly ebbed, she was lifted and sustained by the love and encouragement of her husband, family and friends. Her undaunted spirit cast off the chains of disability to soar on the wings of her poetry of joy, love and light. Her remarkable intelligence, wisdom, compassion, love of life, unyielding contention with adversity, rejection of bitterness and unquenchable love of God are ever present in her poems, prayers and stories. She took pleasure in adapting, coping and living well despite her body's failing strength. In so doing, she attained a victory of the spirit through an exemplary life of courage that inspired all who knew and loved her.
