From Find A Grave Memorial:

[Mound of stones on top of the Grave Grave identified by a decendant.]

James appears to have married someone in 1773. For some reason many people list her as Ann Sturgis, but there are several marriage listings and documents that shows he married her in 1785. For this reason, Ann A'sturgus (Strugis) cannot be the mother of all of his children. All of his children were born prior to this marriage. After the death of Ann, he then marries Phoebe Campbell (nee Sellers) in 1801. Many show this marriage date as 1793, the same year Ann may have died. Many also have some of the children assigned to Phoebe, but this also is incorrect. I believe all of James' children belong to a first, unknown spouse.

Notes for Thomas Denny:

From Find A Grave Memorial:

CAPTAIN/JUDGE THOMAS DENNEY:

From the History of Lawrence, Orange and Washington County, Indiana, 1884, Page 904:

"Joseph Denny, a native of Virginia, was born April 9, 1808, the second of nine children in the family of Thomas and Mary (Hattabaugh) Denny, the latter a native of Pennsylvania and the former of Virginia. During 1809 they came to Washington County, Indiana and settled in Monroe Township where they spent the remainder of their lives..."

From the Centennial History of Washington County Indiana, Pages 511-12: MONROE TOWNSHIP:

"The first post office was called, "Walnut Ridge", and the first postmaster was Thomas Denny... Among the earliest teachers are... and Joseph Denney. Mr. Joseph Denney probably taught more terms of school in this township than any other one man."

From the "History of Washington County, Indiana 1804 page 719, Thomas Denny was listed as a Justice of the Peace in 1816 and 1821.

Joseph Denny stated the following, quoted from page 643 of the "Centennial History of Washington County Indiana".

"Joseph Denny spoke as follows: "My father located on Walnut ridge in 1810. There were nine or ten families in that settlement and they built a fort near where Plattsberg now stands. I'll never forget the night after the Pigeon Roost Massacre. Word reached us that the redskins would attack the Hattabaugh Fort next. The women and children were all bundled up and taken down into the knobs where there were no Indian trails and would not likely be found. The men gathered at the fort and made all necessary preparations to give the savages a warm reception."

Generation 10

There were fifteen men and boys stationed in the fort armed and ready to fight. Strict guard was maintained through the night, but no Indians came. They had crossed the Muscatatuck up east and soon were out of reach of their pursuers. I was too young to handle a gun and was sent away with the women folks. We made beds as best we could out of leaves and trash, but the women slept very little, expecting every minute to hear the crack of rifles and the war whoop of the Indians as they stormed the fort. Next morning they came for us and we all went to our respective homes, but we had to keep about half the men in the settlement scouting about and doing guard duty while the rest tended the crops. That season we lost some horses by thieving bands of Indians. One of our horses that would not stand hitched, came back soon after he had been stolen with some paw-paw bark around his neck, which the Indians had attempted to tie him up with. Those were the times that made me always hate the Indian and I have never had any sympathy for them since."

"The Alarm and Pursuit" Pages 525-6:

"The news of the killing spread very rapidly through the settlements and where forts were within reach the women and children were rushed in for safety. When they remained at home, every precaution possible was taken to bar doors and make ready to resist an attack if one should be made. The early settlers, as well as every member of the family, were always determined to sell their lives as dearly as possible in preference to being captured and in all probability die at the stake.

As soon as they could be gathered together, about forty armed men, under Col. Henry Dawalt, started in pursuit on the day of the killing. Ellisons, the Dennys, Houshes, Rices, Hattabaugh and others unknown were in the company, all on horseback. They started in pursuit of The Indians the morning after the killing. They reached the White River about ten o'clock and the stream was rising full and the current swift. They had no boats and rafts had to be constructed out of driftwood to carry them over. The logs and poles were bound together by grape vines and wythes. The day was far spent by the time they got across and all together again. The crossing was made about two miles below the forks. They soon struck a trail and pursued on as rapidly as possible. Andrew Housh was in the lead, as a sort of advanced guard, and coming in sight of the Indian camp which was about two miles below where they had crossed, he yelled back, "Here they are", which alarmed the Indians who had already prepared to break camp and, they fled precipitately. Some shots were fired at them, but none took effect that they knew of.

It being now about dusk, Colonel Dawalt stopped his troop at the camp over night, but early next morning was on the trail of the fleeing savages. They had several ponies and it was not difficult to follow them up. They kept on the trail for two days until they reached a stream called Bean Blossom in the neighborhood of Bloomington. It had been raining hard and the stream was overflowing its banks, so that a crossing under the circumstances would have been quite difficult. Colonel Dawalt consulted his men, and they concluded that it would be very hazardous for them to go much farther west as Indians in large numbers were known to be in that part of the country. Returning to the old Indian camp, they halted for a day to rest and recuperate themselves before re-crossing the river. Luckily, they found a couple of canoes on the river bank that had been used by the Indians which aided them very much in getting back to their home side of the river.

They were gone just a week. Reaching home, their families were brought back from the forts and hiding places and they set about their usual vocations. It was in the fall of this year that the Pigeon Roost Massacre occurred, and it was in the pursuit of those blood-thirsty demons that John Zink and Spurgeon were killed in Jackson County."

In the early times, Washington County was celebrated far and wide as being the home of a race of giants and the wonderful feats of strength performed by some of these men are scarcely believable. There were a number of stalwarts who knew not how strong they were when under any kind of excitement or when their power was put to the test. Among the men who made up the class of giants that gave the county its reputation were Abram Stover, Thomas Denny, James Uppinghouse, James Lee, John Brough, William Cravens and others. It was generally conceded that Stover possessed the greatest strength of them all and a number of incidents have been handed down relative to his gigantic strength. He was a man of commanding appearance, six feet high, with a huge frame and sturdy manhood. He never vaunted about the superiority of his muscular powers, was never quarrelsome, but stood up for his rights and was ever ready to meet an opponent on friendly terms, even if it came to a fist fight to settle the mooted question. In fact, none of the strong men of early days were prone to be quarrelsome. Had they been vicious and of a fighting disposition, they would have been the terror of the country. When a young man showed that he possessed extraordinary strength and prowess, he always had his champions and backers ready to pit him against any and all comers of like age and experience. These lists were usually planned for muster days and 4th of July celebrations. A ring was formed in which the contestants met and woe be to the individual who dared to interfere any way in the contest other than to urge his favorite to supreme effort, or prompt him what to do. A public gathering of any kind was a very dull affair if there were not a number of fights, wrestles and foot races to give life to the occasion.

Thomas Denney was always considered a close second to Stover as a powerful man and many of his champions were ready to stake their money on him if a contest between the two men could be arranged. The two men were close friends and could not be induced to engage in a fist and skill contest publicly, but their partisans finally arranged for a "whisky barrel" contest during a public gathering at Salem. The test was to be the taking of a barrel of whisky by the chime, raising it up and drinking out of the bung hole. Judges were selected and a full barrel of whisky was rolled out in the street. It fell to Denney's lot to make the first test. After lifting the barrel which weighed about four hundred pounds, he slowly raised it up and took a drink out of the bung hole. Stover walked up leisurely, laid hold of the barrel, raised it up easily, took his drink and set it down without a jar. There was then some discussion about the decision, each side claiming the victory, but the judges after mature deliberation gave the wager to Stover because he had made a clean lift, while Denney had rolled the barrel part of the way up against his legs.

The test did not exactly satisfy Denney, so meeting Stover in Salem a short time after this test was made, he proposed that they go upstairs into an empty room on the corner of lot 9, north side of the square, and take a friendly set-to in order that the matter would be satisfactorily settled, no outsiders admitted. Stover readily consented and upstairs they went, laid off their coats and began their knock-down test. After sparring a bit, Stover planted one on his mauls squarely on the side of Denny's head and down he went. After taking a few breaths they went at it again when Stover watching his opportunity landed a heavy blow in Denny's face bringing a flow of blood and sending him staggering against the wall. The merchant below hearing something fall heavily upon the floor above, proceeded to investigate the matter. When he reached the room they were just turning for their coats when Denny remarked, "Where shall we go to take it". Often after that time their partisans would endeavor to get up a fight between them, but the response of each would be, "He is a mighty stout man and we prefer to be friends."

Thomas Denny was Captain of one of the eight companies of the Ninth Regiment of Territorial Militia organized by Col. John DePauw in Washington County. Hist. of Wash. Co. p. 707.

I have chosen not to enter birth dates, death dates, nor locations for the children. On the various trees on Ancestry and Family Search, the birth date ranges vary considerably for each child. Also the apparent birth locations jump around between Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee as though the family couldn't stay in one place for very long. There is too much confusion and no documentation for birth to continue at this time.

Sally's birth year has also been shown as 1762. Uncertain if it's 1762 or 1775.

ANNIVERSARY POEM.

Read at the anniversary of the seventieth birthday of Mrs. Ann Peterson. By David Scott

No costly gifts have I to bring,
To grace your festive board,
This humble song, I've brought to sing,
Is all I can afford.

Then let my humble rhyme be heard
In silence, if you please,
You'll find it true in ev'ry word,
It flows along with ease.

We've met in honor of our friend
Who seventy years ago,
Came to this earth some years to spend,

How many none can know.

The world is using her so well,
I hope she'll tarry long,
And ten years hence I hope to tell,
"I have another song."

Peterson, Thomas

Mr. Thomas Peterson a thrifty farmer and estimable citizen of the Fourth district was found dead in his barn on his farm a mile east of Cherry Hill on Wednesday morning about six o'clock. Half an hour before he had started for the barn and not returning his wife, Sarah L. DuLane Peterson, went there and found him lying on the floor. She sent word to Coroner Litzenberg who accompanied by Dr. Howard Bratton went to view the remains. As there were no marks of violence or suspicious circumstances the coroner decided not to hold an inquest. The deceased had been suffering from heart disease for several years and this Dr. Bratton thinks caused his death. Mr. Peterson by industry had accumulated considerable property owning two farms in the Fourth district, one in Western Maryland and houses in Elkton and Chesapeake City. He leaves no children. The funeral services will be held at his late residence on Sunday morning, interment at Cherry Hill. Mr. Peterson was in his 77th year.

Notes for William Henry Wallis I:

PROBLEMS:

(1) Nearly everyone and at least once census reports shows Elizabeth as being born in about 1824. The 1870 census, however; states she is 56 years of age and William in 45. The age of 56 in 1870 would make her being born in about 1814-1815.

(2) Grave markers from Find A Grave show William Jr. as being born on April 12, 1850 and Elmira being born on June 7, 1850. There has to be a critical error here. The 1870 census shows Elmira as being 19 years of age meaning she was born in either 1850 or 1851. William Jr. is not listed as part of the household. I have not found him satisfactorily in an 1870 census. Elizabeth J Forwood and William Henry Wallis I had the following children:

Notes for Nancy Alice Grady:

Many people confuse Nancy Alice Grady with Nancy Alice Smith. While these are the same individual, the correct surname is GRADY. She is the child of Joseph D. Grady and Susan Jane Ware and not the child of John Smith and Susan Jane Ware (Grady). It also appears that people are showing John Smith and Susan Jane Ware as being married in 1878 in order to justify Nancy as being their child; however, the 1880 census lists (Susan) Jane Grady and Nancy A Grady in the household of John Smith, with (Susan) Jane as a servant. It appears John Smith married his servant, Susan Jane Ware (Grady) sometime between this census and the birth of their first child on 27 Aug 1881.

Jones - TWO ARE DEAD Diphtheria Claims Two Victims in Kankakee Township
Two children in the family of Ferdinand Jones, living at Rolling Prairie, Have fallen victims to diphtheria. One death, that of a three-year-old daughter, (Eva Grace Jones) took place Sunday, and yesterday another child succumbed to the dread disease. The health authorities are maintaining quarantine measures which will not be relaxed until all danger of the disease spreading have been obviated. The theory prevails that the cases in the Jones family were contracted from persons who had come from South Bend which is being scourged by the malady. Undertaker Weir buried the bodies of the two little victims.

Notes for Andrew Jackson Imel Sr.:

From Find A Grave Memorial:

Andrew Jackson Imel - Obit - Sublette Monitor, 15 May 1924, page 3, column 4

In the death of Andrew Jackson Imel, successful farmer and business man of Ford county and former representative from the county in the state legislature, who died at his home in Spearville last Sunday, May 4, Ford county loses one of its best known and most highly respected citizens, a man who came to western Kansas in tis early days and was a decided factor in the building up of the community in which he resided for so many years.

"Uncle Jack" as Mr. Imel was known by all his friends, was born in the city of Madison, Jefferson county, Indiana, on November 1, 1851. His death last Sunday came after a lingering illness of more than four years' duration. At the time of his death he was 73 years, 5 months and 3 days of age.

On December 1, 1870, in Madison, Mr. Imel married Miss Catherine L. Haskell, who bore him a family of eleven children, seven sons and four daughters. Nine of the family are left to mourn with their widowed mother, The living children are: Mrs. Margerite Moody, of Haskell county, Kansas, Mrs Viola Steel of Gray County, Kansas; Mrs. Lilly Beaver, of Spearville, Andrew J. Imel, Jr. of Harper County; John T. Imel and Abraham Imel of Colorado; Mrs. Lulu Perkins of Spearville; Freeman Imel of Harper county, and Elmer D. Imel of La Junta, Colorado. Two sons, P.M. Imel and Carl Imel, preceded their father to the grave.

Mr. Imel also leaves sixty-nine grandchildren and eighteen great grandchildren. Coming to Kansas in 1878, Mr. Imel settled on a homestead six miles south of Spearville, where he lived until last year which he spent in Spearville.

In his youth he became a member of the Baptist church. In 1908 he joined the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Dodge City and in 1911 transferred his membership to the Spearville lodge, About twelve years ago he represented Ford county for one term of two years in the state legislature.

In the death of Mr. Imel, the people of Spearville and of Ford county have lost a good friend and neighbor and the lodge which was privileged to call him a member has lost a respected brother a man of sterling qualities, on always ready to extend the helping hand to all mankind, without distinction as to social or financial standing.

During the last hours of his illness "Uncle Jack" prayed that God would call him home that he might be with his mother and other loved ones gone before.

His death will be mourned by all who knew him. Funeral services for Mr. Imel were held from the Methodist Church at Spearville at 2:30 o'clock the afternoon of

Notes for Elsie Clarice Jones:
From Find A Grave Memorial:

Elsie Clarice Jones was born 9 JUL 1901 in La Porte County, IN to Ferdinand and Ida Lucinda Robbins Jones.

Her brother said she grew up rapidly and was smart enough to skip some grades in school and could memorize 7 or 8 pages at a time.

Her father had bought a car when she was a teenager but he didn't like to drive. At 14 Elsie learned to drive the Model T and change the tires and became the family driver!

She also took piano lessons and began playing piano at the Olive Chapel Christian Church. She graduated from New Carlisle High School in 1918. At 18 she joined the Ancient Order of Gleaner's, New Carlisle Chapter. She wanted to go to college, but her mother made her stay home and help.

She married Howard Mounts on 22 DEC 1923 in LaPorte County, IN.

She fell in her kitchen while removing wall paper from the ceiling. She hit her head and neck on the corner of the stove. The fall caused a muscular dystrophy type condition that progressively got worse over the next four years. Her son Harold went to live with his uncle and aunt Ward and Olive Mounts. The rest of the family lived with Elsie's parents so Ida could care for Elsie.

Elsie died at the age of thirty on 17 JUL 1931.

Notes for Thurman Earl Baker:

According to David N. Baker:

He was 6ft 3in and later in his life weighed 176 lbs. He played the harmonica and Jew's harp. As a youngster he was legally blind. He said he recognized people by the way they walked, as he couldn't make out faces. He accomplished most things by feel. The teacher where he started school said she did not have time to teach a blind person in her 1 room schoolhouse and sent him home. In his late teens, after treatment, he was able to see and taught himself to read and sign his name. He did arithmetic faster in his head than the rest with pencil and paper. He worked for a dollar a day, then farmed on the shares and finally in 1941 bought a farm of about 200 acres already furnished with tools, horses, and some livestock. He plowed and prepared people's gardens in Clarksburg IN 2 1/2 miles from his farm and did other odd jobs to make enough money to get by. He accepted other's horses and broke them to work. Eventually he bought a tractor and before his heart attack at 55 he was farming about 200 acres south of Andersonville, IN plus renting 500 additional acres for $800 per year. He loved coon hunting and the last year I hunted with him we caught 64 coons. His dog Madge took the World Championship in the Arkansas Field Trials after he sold her to another guy.

Provided by Douglas Richard Baker:

Captain Marion K. Baker, thank you for your dedication and service to our Heavenly Father, to our family, and to our great country that we are privileged to call our home. You have run well the race that was laid before you, and it is now time for you to rest while we endeavor to follow in your big footsteps. You will be missed!

Generation 14

Thank you for remaining vigilant at your post of duty; for it was you and other Minutemen like you that stood as lone sentinels on the front lines waging a mostly invisible Cold War, charged with faithfully maintaining the peace that many others before you bled to purchase for us all.

Thank you for being willing to be called away at a moment's notice from baseball games and school plays and church potlucks and restful nights in a warm bed with your sleeping wife... to suit up and travel, often through snow and ice, to isolated concrete and steel silos buried under the fields of America's Bread Baskets. While we played, while we slept, while we built and while we dreamed... while we studied to prepare ourselves for our individual and important callings in life, USAF Missiler's, and the legions of airmen that supported their efforts, willingly served under lonely and harsh conditions to fight a war against an unseen and thankfully as of yet unnamed enemy. Sure, many built bunkers and many of us practiced drills in the event of a nuclear attack. But only a few held the keys, in calm and steady hands while bearing daily the awesome dread, that would unleash the wrath and the might of a nation as it recovered from a mortal wound in the event of a strike against her.

Thank you for the early morning calls to rise so that we could gather together and to commit the Words of God to memory and commit ourselves anew each day into the protective hands of the Almighty, not knowing if this might be our last day. Thank you for standing guard to hold back the wrath while I found myself in the volume of the book as it opened before our watchful eyes... Thank you for your service as our father and as a husband... Thank you for your labors as Sunday School teacher and for serving as a church deacon at our postings in 11 States in the US... Thank you for the backpacking trips and the annual trips to the grandparent's homes and farms where we picked wild berries and played in the corn fields... Thank you for caring enough to correct us when we were wrong... Thank you for taking in those in need, thereby teaching us to do the same... We understand that your life of service meant that we couldn't always have the time we wanted with you. We also understand that it meant that you donated your time that you could have otherwise have spent seeking pleasure for yourself.

And so we all with heavy hearts say to you a final time "farewell" and we say to you "well done." And I want to personally say to you "until..." Thank you Captain. Thanks papa.

Retired United States Air Force Captain, Marion Knight Baker, 82, of Goodyear, Arizona passed away peacefully on August 13, 2016 after a long, hard fought battle with prostate cancer and heart disease. He was born June 19, 1934 on a small farm outside Orange Township, Indiana to Thurman Earl Baker and Charlotte Estella (Robbins) Baker.

In 1955 he enlisted in the United States Air Force and served as a Bomber Navigation System Mechanic for 6 years and 8 months. During this time he met and married the love of his life, Deanna Bolin on May 27, 1956 in Andersonville, Indiana. April 2, 1961 he attended Officer Candidate School and graduated September 22, 1961 as a second lieutenant with Class 62-A at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. He went on to serve an additional 13 years, 4 months as a Missile Maintenance Staff Officer, with an important role in the Minuteman missile program, retiring in 1975 with the 394th Strategic Missile Squadron at Vandenberg AFB, California. He distinguished himself and earned the Air Force Commendation Medal for Outstanding Achievement, Small Arms Expert Marksmanship Ribbon, National Defense Service Medal, Air Force Outstanding Unit Award Medal and Air Force Longevity Service Award. While serving in the Air Force he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Chapman University. After his retirement from the Air Force, Mr. Baker joined the Santa Barbara County Sheriff Department for four years. He then embarked upon a career in the airline industry serving as a Station Manager at Golden West Airlines and Pacific Coast Airlines prior to joining SkyWest-Delta Airlines. He moved to the Phoenix, Arizona area in 1993, retiring from the airline industry in 1996.

Gene Kay was born May 31, 1931 in McPhee, Colorado to Orson Ross (Ross) and Laura Pearl (Pearl) Kay. He was the oldest of nine children (two others died at birth or before). He moved to Oregon as a youngster and lived in the Lincoln County area for the majority of his young life. He graduated from Taft High School in what is now Lincoln City in 1949. He received a football scholarship to Linfield College but was unable to take it due to a logging truck accident. He later entered the Navy and was discharged due to a concussion....probably from his football days.

He married Dorothy Lehto in 1952 and had six children. He was a logger but went into the Portland Fire Department in 1959. He worked as a fireman for twenty-five years, retiring in 1984 when he returned to the Oregon coast. He also had a family shake mill on the side until he retired. Gene served as a volunteer fire department board member and was a member of the Elks Lodge. He loved to hunt.
